Dear Prof. Delmo,

Goodday!

The Distinguished Organization of Management Technologist and Corporate Specialist (DOMT.CS) of Polytechnic University of the Philippines Quezon City Branch will be upholding a webinar entitled "Salient Points and Updates on RA No. 10173 otherwise known as the Data Privacy Act of 2012 in relation to Health Records Management" on June 15, 2021 at 1:30 PM- 6:30 PM via Zoom-Cloud Meeting Room and Facebook Live. We have invited Mr. Jeffrey Pineda Reyes, Juris Doctor, Administrative officer III Unit Head of Health Information Management Department (HIMD) and Electronic Health Records Concurrently Unit Head of Public Assistance and Complaint Unit (PACU) as our Resource Speaker who has great knowledge and a specialist due to years of studying and experience in that topic.

As part of its endeavors, DOMT.CS will help third year DOMT students to meet their needs and organize their webinar led by their professor Ms. Rosanna Florenzia A. Ulep, DMD, MPH a faculty member of Dental Services Department in PUP Quezon City branch.

The objectives of this event are as follows:

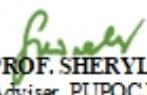

- To help third-year students of DOMT to reduce the time in their On the Job Training.
- To help our fellow DOMT students and others who are interested in Health Records Management
- To give an overview of the health records and their organizations
- To give knowledge on the procedures used in registration, reception, and initiation of patient/client records.
- To give knowledge on the various methods of creating and maintaining health records indices.

We are hoping for your utmost support. Thank you in advance and May God bless you!

For the students we remain,

KAREN FAITH S. JACINTO
President, PUPQC DOMT.CS

Noted by:

PROF. SHERYL MORALES
Adviser, PUPQC DOMT.CS

I. OBJECTIVE OF THE WEBINAR

The objectives of this webinar are as follows:

- To give knowledge to every one about the aspects that the Data Privacy Act of 2012 covers in relation to Health Records Management.
- To prepare DOMT Students and others for a medical office career by understanding the Data Privacy Act of 2012 in relation to Health Records Management that might be encountered in a modern medical office setting.

II. DESCRIPTION OF THE SPEAKER

The organizers were able to invite Mr. Jeffrey Pineda Reyes, JD, MPA as the resource speaker of the webinar. Mr. Reyes is a Juris Doctor, and the Administrative Officer III Unit Head of Health Information Management Department (HIMD) and Electronic Health Records, and is concurrently the Unit Head of Public Assistance and Complaint Unit (PACU) of Dr. Jose N. Rodriguez Memorial Hospital and Sanitarium. He finished his bachelor's degree in Science in Business Administration Major in Management and master's degree in Public Administration both at the Polytechnic University of the Philippines.

III. DISCUSSION OF THE SPEAKER

Right to Privacy

- Crucible of the bill of rights (art. iii, 1987 const.)
- Supporting the right of the persons to life, liberty and property. (sec. 1, art iii, 1987 const.)
- The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects. (sec. 2, art. iii, 1987 const.)
- Right against self-incrimination

Right to Information Privacy

- The individual's ability to control the flow of information concerning or describing him, which however must be over balanced by legitimate public concerns.
- To deprive an individual of his power to control or determine whom to share information of his personal details would deny him of his right to his own personhood. (kmu v director general neda, et al., g.r. no. 167798, april 19, 2006)

Data Privacy Act (DPA) of 2012

- Republic act no. 10173

9527817;4289144;9577817 Email: commonwealth@pup.edu.ph / Website: www.pup.edu.ph

- An act protecting individual personal information in information and communications systems in the government and the private sector, creating for this purpose a national privacy commission, and for other purposes.
- Promulgated august 15, 2012.

Emphasis of the Law:

- Data protection SHOULD NOT BE AN OBSTACLE for people to obtain benefits from utilization of personal data;
- Use of personal data comes with a responsibility. THE RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECTS SHOULD, AT ALL TIMES, BE A PARAMOUNT CONSIDERATION.

Application

- PERSONAL DATA: Any information from which the identity of individual is apparent or any information that can be put together with other information to reasonable and directly identify an individual.
- INCLUDES
 - 1.) PERSONAL INFORMATION;
 - 2.) SENSITIVE PERSONAL INFORMATION;
 - 3) PRIVILEGED INFORMATION

Data Privacy Act (DPA)

(l) Sensitive personal information refers to personal information:

- (1) About an individual's race, ethnic origin, marital status, age, color, and religious, philosophical or political affiliations;
- (2) About an individual's health, education, genetic or sexual life of a person, or to any proceeding for any offense committed or alleged to have been committed by such person, the disposal of such proceedings, or the sentence of any court in such proceedings;
- (3) Certificates issued by government agencies peculiar to an individual which includes, but not limited to, social security numbers, previous or cm-rent health records, licenses or its denials, suspension or revocation, and tax returns; and
- (4) Specifically established by an executive order or an act of Congress to be kept classified.
(Sec. 1 (l), RA 10173)

Consent

- Adhering to the principle of legitimate purpose.
- Requires that processing of personal data shall be compatible with a declared and specified purpose.
- Adhering to the principle of legitimate purpose also requires legal basis for processing;
- Authority may be derived from:
 - law
 - the Constitution
 - from the consent of the data subject

Waiver of Rights to Privacy

- Rights may be waived, unless contrary to law, public order, public policy, morals, or good customs, or prejudicial to a third person with a right recognized by law. (art. 6, new civil code)

When is Consent not required?

1. Special Cases provided in Section 4, to the minimum extent of collection, access, use, disclosure, or other processing, necessary to the purpose, function or activity concerned.
 - (a) Information about any individual who is or was an officer or employee of a government institution that relates to the position or functions of the individual, including:
 - (1) The fact that the individual is or was an officer or employee of the government institution;
 - (2) The title, business address and office telephone number of the individual;
 - (3) The classification, salary range and responsibilities of the position held by the individual; and
 - (4) The name of the individual on a document prepared by the individual in the course of employment with the government;

Consent

- any freely given, specified, informed indication of will, whereby the data subject agree to the collection and processing of personal information about and/or relating to him or her.
- evidenced by written, electronic or recorded means.
- IMPLIED CONSENT IS NOT ALLOWED.

Who process personal data?

Personal Information Controller (PIC):

- Individual, corporation, other body – the one who controls the processing or personal data, the one who decides.
- There is control if the natural or juridical person any other decides on what information is collected, or the purpose or extent of its processing;
- Not the employee, not the Data Protection Officer, Not the Chief Information Officer.

PERSONAL DATA SHALL NOT BE RETAINED LONGER THAN NECESSARY

- Retention of personal data shall be allowed in cases provided by law. (Retention schedule of DOH)
- Personal Data shall be disposed or discarded in a secure manner that would prevent further processing, unauthorized access, or disclosure.

DATA SHARING

Allowed when expressly authorized by law, provided:

- Strict compliance by all parties to the agreement of the rules and other issuances of the Commission, including putting in place adequate safeguards for data privacy and security.

- The data sharing agreement - subject to review of the Commission, motu proprio or upon complaint of data subject.

RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECT

1. Right to Information
2. Right to Object
3. Right to Access
4. Right to Correct
5. Right to Erase
6. Right to Damages
7. Right to Data Portability
8. Right to File a Complaint

SECURITY MEASURES

The security measures shall aim to maintain the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of personal data and are intended for the protection of personal data against any accidental or unlawful destruction, alteration, and disclosure, as well as against any other unlawful processing.

ORGANIZATIONAL SECURITY MEASURES

1. Designate a Data Protection Officer

- The personal information controller shall designate an individual or individuals who are accountable for the organization's compliance with this Act. [DPA, Section 21 (b)]
- Not simply a means to demonstrate compliance with one of the legal requirements
- Should be empowered to perform functions to assure that an organization takes data privacy and security seriously
- Must have top management support to allow for meaningful changes in the organization.

2. Conduct a Privacy Impact Assessment

- Process to evaluate and manage privacy impacts in an organization's programs, process, activities, systems and operation
- Takes into account the nature of the personal data to be protected and evaluates the risks to privacy and security represented by the processing of personal data

3. Develop a Privacy Management Program (PMP)

- Should proceed from an understanding of the processing systems within an organization
- Should take into account PIA and legal obligations and requirements
- Include privacy notices and privacy policies
- Essentially provide a roadmap for compliance with the law.

For hospitals - important to take note of existing laws and regulations that specifically mandate the confidentiality of records.

- • Pertaining to cases of violence against women and their children RA9262
- • Medical Confidentiality of HIV cases (RA 8504)
- • Cases of child sexual abuse (PD 603)

- • Confidentiality of records of drug dependents under voluntary and compulsory submission program (RA 9165)
- 4. Management of Human Resources – Non-disclosure agreements, training and capacity building.
- 5. Regular review and monitoring of privacy and security policies.

CREATE YOUR DATA PRIVACY MANUAL

- Data Protection Policies and Security Measures
- Procedure for collection, use or disclosure, storage and disposal of personal data
- Access management and system monitoring
- Protocols to follow during security incidents or technical problems, breach management
- Policies and Procedures for data subjects to exercise their rights under the Act;
- Regular review and monitoring of privacy and security policies.

PHYSICAL SECURITY MEASURES

- Design of office space and work stations, including the physical arrangement of furniture and equipment, shall provide privacy to anyone processing personal data, taking into consideration the environment and accessibility to the public.
- Records room and work stations should have limited access.
- The room and work station used in the processing of data shall, as far as practicable, be secured against natural disasters, power disturbances, external access, and other similar threats.

DATA BREACH MANAGEMENT

- Organization must be prepared for a personal data breach
- Requires implementing measures to prevent security incidents and personal data breaches
- Incident response policy and procedure, compliance with notification requirements in place
- The NPC Circular on personal Data Breach management is available at privacy.gov.ph

NPC Memorandum Circular 16-03

PERSONAL DATA BREACH

Refers to a breach security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure of, or access to, personal data transmitted, stored, or otherwise processed. A personal data breach may be in the nature of:

- ✓ An availability breach resulting from loss, accidental or unlawful destruction of personal data;
- ✓ Integrity breach resulting from alteration of personal data; and/or
- ✓ A confidentiality breach resulting from the unauthorized disclosure or access to personal data.

IV. CONCLUSION

Based on the evaluation form that the organizers created for the attendees to answer after the webinar, the webinar fortunately met its objectives. The webinar was able to give knowledge to every participant about the aspects that the Data Privacy Act of 2012 covers in relation to Health Records Management. Aside from that, based on the answers collected from DOMT students in Quezon City branch, Sta. Mesa, and other branches of Polytechnic University of the Philippines, they were able to understand the Data Privacy Act of 2012 in relation to Health Records Management that they might encounter in a modern medical office setting.

Most of the overall feedbacks from the participants and attendees concluded that the webinar was informative. Feedbacks also showed that the participants gained a lot of knowledge from the webinar and that it was outstanding, they are satisfied, and the topic was interesting. Participants also commend Mr. Jeffrey Pineda Reyes, JD, MPA for being a great and knowledgeable resource speaker,
